

WORKSHOP 2 >>>

Thursday 29 September 2022

SAFETY INNOVATIONS, TAKING A LENS TO TRADITIONAL TECHNIQUES

Thursday 29 September 12:00pm - 5:00pm

12:00 Lunch and Networking

13:00

13:00 Workshop 1: Investigating Together

14:15 Presented by Michelle Oberg, National Human Operational Performance Manager at Downer

Workshop outcomes: Learning teams. An introduction and overview of learning teams, the comparison of learning teams versus traditional investigation methodologies.

14:15 Workshop 2: How to change “safety culture” without talking about “safety” and without trying to change “culture”

15:30 Presented by Melissa Pollock, General Manager - Health and Safety for Abergeldie Complex Infrastructure

Workshop outcomes: An overview of contemporary/new view safety theories, tips on strategy formations, tips on small and large change, sharing of the Abergeldie journey and lessons learned so far.

15:30 Afternoon Tea Break and Networking

15:45

15:45 Workshop 3: Exploring WHS as an output of operational management

17:00 Presented by Dr Martin O'Neill, Innovative Sustainability, Risk, Safety, and workers' compensation executive

Workshop outcomes: Introduction to the theories/concepts, The sharing of case studies of where this has worked, workshoping your current organisation and identifying actions to drive change.